Madison Alumni lost but NOT forgotten!

Class of 68

Teresa Lynn Hamlin

Died: Apr 26, 20

Maiden: Hamlin

Obit: Born in the heart of the Appalachian coal-mining country in Harlan County, Kentucky, in 1950, Teresa moved with her parents to Nashville while she was still young. The family later settled in Cross Plains for many years, and Teresa eventually lived and worked in the Madison area later in life.

Teresa was a literary savant and received her B.A. and M.L.S. from the University of Tennessee. Her love of books was always with her and provided a catalyst for her opening up her own used bookstore, The Book Attic, which she operated for over three decades. She was also a respected and published author.

Teresa did more than just read about the adventures of others. She also loved to travel and create her own stories, as evidenced by her numerous international journeys. She traveled across the globe to Europe, Africa, and beyond. Teresa learned from and appreciated every experience and culture along the way. She also made a marked difference in the lives of many in the Nashville area through her active involvement in several charities that emphasized helping children, those less fortunate, and small business owners.

Teresa is preceded in death by her parents, George and Gene Hamlin. She will be missed by a loving family and a host of beloved friends.

Family and friends will gather to remember Teresa at a Celebration of Life service Wednesday, May 27, 2020 at 12:00 at Forest Lawn Funeral Home and Memorial Gardens 1150 S. Dickerson Road in Goodlettsville, Tennessee with Lawrence Clark officiating. Click here for obit
