Class of 77

Donald “Donnie” “Burn Out” Connolly

Died: Dec 26, 19

Obit: Donnie was an avid bird watcher (who hated squirrels), a meticulous craftsman, a true green thumb and could make anything grow and thrive. He loved to BBQ and was known for his BBQ chicken legs, amazing steaks and burgers; the ultimate grill master. He loved his TV, especially the news. He watched it every time it was on, on several different channels. When not catching up on the news, Donnie was cheering on the TN Titans and Dale Earnhardt, Jr.

He loved all things outdoors; camping, boating, gardening (which included every flower imaginable in his garden), caving, along with many other things. He had a wit that was all his own. To know him was to love him. He had an infectious smile and could make anyone laugh with his keen sense of humor. He loved Christmas and enjoyed decorating outdoors and could light up the sky with his beautiful twinkling lights. In true "Burn Out" fashion, he loved his truck and had a need for speed.

He was truly one of a kind and will be missed dearly by so many.
