Betty Renn Zuccarello was born August 7, 1928 in Davidson County to the late Harry Jackson Renn and Elizabeth Brown Renn. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by husband, Joe F. Zuccarello; grandparents, John Brown and Elizabeth Butler Brown; brother, Harry Jackson Renn, Jr.; and sister-in-law, Frances Renn Henson. She is survived by daughter, Sharon Faircloth (Bill) of Goodlettsville; two grandchildren, William "Bill" C. Martin IV (Rebecca) and Jackson "Jack" R. Martin (Brittany); and niece, Linda McCartney of Memphis.

Mrs. Zuccarello graduated from Vanderbilt University and taught in the Metropolitan Nashville Public School System, retiring after 35 years of service. After retirement, she engaged in many activities: serving on the Historic Cragfont Board, Gallatin Arts Council Board, and The Sumner County Historical Society Board. Betty served as chairman and member of Col. Jethro Sumner Chapter of the DAR. She was a Trustee at Volunteer State Community College, serving on the Vol. State Friends of the Library Board. A member of First United Methodist Church, she taught Sunday School for many years. Online condolences may be submitted at alexanderheritagefh.com. Alexander Family Heritage Funeral Home has been honored with arrangements.
