We offer the 1956 RAM with the hope that you will find it a treasure chest of rare trinkets and priceless jewels, recalling happy memories of this eventful year at Madison High.

THE ANNUAL STAFF

Foreword

We, the annual staff, gratefully dedicate the 1956 RAM to Mrs. Helen Phifer, who, in her official capacity as teacher and sponsor, and her unofficial position of counselor and friend, has never ceased to display the qualities of patient understanding and able guidance.

Alma Mater

Standing proudly there before us,
With your glory all around;

The first system of musical notation for the song 'Alma Mater'. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The time signature is 4/4. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are placed between the two staves.

Truth and justice be your watchword,

And may your love abound.
Open wide your doors of knowledge;

The second system of musical notation, continuing the melody and bass line from the first system. The lyrics are placed between the two staves.

Welcome all who enter here;

chorus

Gain in wisdom, joy, and honor,
Stand for all we hold most dear.

(chorus)

The third system of musical notation, which begins the chorus. It features the same two-staff format. The lyrics are placed between the staves. A handwritten 'chorus' label is written to the left of the first staff.

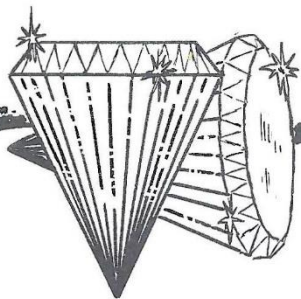

Madison High, we love you dearly;
Proudly do we hail your name;
May your name go on before us
Into life's great hall of fame.

The fourth and final system of musical notation on the page. It continues the chorus melody and bass line. The lyrics are placed between the two staves.

THE FINEST GEM . . . WITH AS MANY FACETS
AS THERE ARE PERSONALITIES

Prophecy and Will of the Senior Class

MARCH 15, 1966

Dear Diary: Spring Cleaning—today I was cleaning out the attic and guess what I found! My old Madison annual for 1956. It was such fun reading the autographs and the Will and Prophecy. I must have pored over it for hours, until I heard Frank's Cadillac pull into the garage beside "Jukebox Baby," my Continental. He was whistling as he came in, so I knew that he had had a good day at the pool room (Uncle Frank's and Aunt Lizzie's. I think that's cute). After dinner I showed him the "treasure."

We laughed a while at the snapshots and mottos and thumbnail sketches. Then I flipped over to the Will and Prophecy.

Frank read, "The Last Will and Testament of the Class of '56."

"We, the Senior Class of 1956, having been 'seniors' for the past three years, and being of very unsound mind and shaky body, do hereby state that this is our last will and testament.

To the class of 1957, we bequeath our badly worn orange and white balls and chains, which we have worn proudly for the past three years. We also leave our ability to get into "hot" discussions (without half trying) to the Juniors.

To the Sophomores, we leave the responsibility of helping the Juniors finish filling up the Trophy cases.

To the Freshmen, we leave our meeting place at the water fountain in the Senior Hall.

To the Seventh and Eighth grades, we leave a future of wonderful times and happy moments to be had during high school. We regret, however, that we cannot leave our experiences also.

To the Faculty, we leave our heartfelt gratitude for all the many, many times they have lifted us over the hurdles and guided us along the straight and narrow path. Together, we have created many moments to remember.

All the future classes at Madison High, we, the first graduating class, leave with heavy hearts and tears of sadness, for the endings of beautiful stories are always sad. We face a new beginning, and all of us are wondering and hoping that the road that lies ahead is as sweet and easy to travel as the one over which we have journeyed for the past three years."

Frank dried his eyes and looked up. "Why, Liz, what're you bawlin' for?" he asked.

"Never mind, Frank—let's get back to the will," I said.

"We, the members of the Class of '56, also bequeath the following. . . .

"I, Shirley Armour, leave my artistic talents to Jimmy Johnson." It seems she certainly did make good use of her talents, as she now is head illustrator for McCall's Magazine.

"I, Betty Baird, leave happily with my ambulance driver." They have their own fleet of ambulances now, all painted orange and white.

"I, Jerry Bass, leave my perfect target to Jack Williams to prove to him that it can be hit." He's an instructor in Hollywood now, teaching all the cowboys to shoot.

"I, Raymond Becker, leave with the 'Green Turtle.' He took that 'Green Turtle' to East Tennessee; now he's got a farm raising game cocks—the fightin'est roosters around.

"I, Melva Billingsley, leave my love for Mr. Chapel's English class to Beverly Sherman." She's now Dean of Men at Vandy. She also smokes a pipe now.

"I, Bobby Boner, leave my melodious voice to Charles Goins." He's pretty good too. We saw him on TV tonight singing—"We Were Married by Candlelight—It only lasted a Wick."

"I, Dale Brown, leave my pretty hair to Betty Armour, who doesn't need it." She's taken over Mrs. Phifer's English class now; teaches Sociology, too.

"I, Margaret Bullock, leave Joe—just daring anyone to touch him." But she didn't leave him for long—they were married the next spring.

"I, Barbara Burnett, leave rather reluctantly . . . after all, I just got here." She and Randy Jones married and moved to Houston.

"I, Tommy Calloway, leave all these relieved teachers in peace? . . . no, pieces." He's a cracked engineer. Frank was telling me about traveling over one of Tommy's super-highways. It's made of sponge rubber, to cut down on traffic fatalities.

"I, Tommy Carter, leave my height to Sparky Edgin."

"I, Nancy Sircy Carter, leave with Tommy." They have their own chain of grocery stores—the Bi-Here-Di-Here Stores.

"I, Harold Clark, leave my studious ways to J. D. Vandercook." He's a minister now; his church broke the World Sunday School record.

"I, Dave Cline, leave my long, slow, southern drawl to Hog." He married into the Garrett firm of Drug Stores and is now general manager of both drug stores and of Gail.

"I, Bobby Collins leave my #x!#x car to anyone who is able to push it." He's a top mechanic now, but his ole car still won't run.

"I, Gloria Cooley, leave my job as accompanist to Frances." She's a concert pianist at Carnegie Hall. Her favorite encore selection is "When the Bullfrogs Do the Rock and Roll."

"I, Paula Craig, hate to leave . . . Bogey." She and Bogey now manage their own basketball team—all a family affair.

"I, Virginia Crawford, leave still hoping to set the school on fire." She took over Martha Raye's show—she throws the biggest pies on TV.

"I, Bobby Crowell, leave . . . at last." He skipped work the other day. Now he has to get his wife to write him a note so he can go back to work.

"I, William Crymes, leave still disagreeing with Craig." He's one of the best dance teachers in town. His motto, "Are you the worst drip on the dance floor?—Crymes can make you the best."

"I, Helen Davis, leave my sweetness to some sour Junior."

"I, Bernard DeVasher, leave for Vandy—Rah!!" He had his eye on Helen all through high school, and when Helen found out about it, she married the guy. He didn't have a chance.

"I, Juanita Denson, leave one freckle to each of the Juniors." She's a sixth grade teacher at the new Amqui Elementary School.

"I, Lila Duke, leave my one and only prize black eye to anyone with the nerve to get one to match." She's now captain of the world-famous Globe-Gallopers. They replaced the once famous Globe Trotters and are now touring Europe.

"I, Albert Dunn, leave my "Jawohl" to Steve Brady." He now has his Ph.D. in Physics and is a professor at Harvard.

"I, Craig Ellis, leave quietly, beating a hasty retreat on my drum." Frank promised me that we'd go to the movies tonight to see Craig in his latest picture "Went With the Breeze." It was very good; he's a second Clark Gable.

"I, Patricia Fann, leave carrying my wit—which is larger than I am." She's also a top entertainer now. She opens tomorrow night for a week's billing at the New Madison Recreation Center.

"I, Alvin Frey, leave my position as "Most Valuable Player" in the "A" League to anyone who has the willpower to fill it." He was a great gridiron star, and he's making a great Secretary-Treasurer of the U.S. He ran on the Republican ticket.

"I, Flash Gaines, leave all my 'garments' to Rags Hurt." Flash really made good; he's called 'The Second Jim Thorpe'—made All American last season.

"I, Virginia Garner, leave to enter the grocery business with Joe." They really entered it, too. They've consolidated A & P, Cooper & Martin, Kroger, Bi-Rite Washapatakunk Market, and the H. G. Hill's stores. Their chain is known as the Jinny-Jo Mkts., Inc.

"I, Earlene Garrett, leave for St. Thomas and all the good-looking internees."

"I, Gail Garrett, leave my immaculate neatness to Stinky Belcher." She and Dave are busy proving that kids are cheaper by the dozen.

"I, Margaret Grubbs, leave Mr. Chapel's class." She is now sole owner of Grubbs & Grubbs Grubbing Hoe Mfg. Co.

"I, LaVerne Hall, leave quietly . . . as I came." LeVerne Hall . . . the internationally famous trapper in the Canadian Yukon. He holds the world's record for shooting 1575.5 Kodiak bears.

"I, Jo Ann Hastings, leave my little bitty brain to someone who doesn't even have that much." It's a wonder Jo Ann's still alive—she has a job as stock car driver for Joey Chitwood.

"I, Peggy Hoskins, leave my long brown hair to Faye Sloan." She's still fooling with hair—she owns the chain of Hoskins Barber Shops.

"I, Nancy Howell, leave in my Chevy." She drove that ole Chevy all the way to Saudi Arabia, where she is now a missionary.

"I, Faye Huff, leave . . . you-all." She's still got her southern accent, even though she's the editor-in-chief of Harper's Bazaar Magazine.

"I, Warren Hinkle, leave my huge giggle to Chuck Eller." He married Earlene and now they're medical missionaries in South Africa. They had a problem on their hands about a month ago . . . the Catorhombopoochikuti-chingow tribe of chimpanzees had a terrible mumps epidemic.

"I, Carlene Kelly, leave my southern drawl to Mr. Evers." She's Craig's co-star in "Went With the Breeze." She's billed as the second Scarlet O'Hara.

"I, Sandra Hoffman, leave for the sunny sands of Florida with Tommy right along behind." She's now secretary to Mr. DePriest of Madison High—also sponsor of the cheerleaders.

"I, Betty Marsh, leave, still glad Patsy and I are twins." She married Bobby Jones and had four sets of twins.

"I, Patsy Marsh, leave glad of the same thing." She is still running around hunting for millionaires . . . dating Dale Carnegie and J. D. Rockefeller XIV, and J. P. Morgan XIII.

"I, Kitty McKee, leave for a short rest from gettin' all confused." She's a famous veterinarian; she won a baby white elephant for her work in discovering a new dog food.

"I, Deanie Meador, leave in Claude's Cadillac." They finally got married and now they own their own Cadillac Co.—known as Deanie and Claudie's Cadillac Co., Inc.

"I, Jane Moore, leave my typing job to Julia Witt." She's head secretary of General Shoe Corporation.

"I, Lloyd Jones, leave . . . and this time I'm not skipping." He graduated "Magna Cum Laude" from Ole Miss and is now taking Coach Brimm's place as coach of the Madison Rams, who have won the state championship for the past eight years.

"I, Randy Jones, leave three of my freckles to Danny Woods." He is a famous brain surgeon, and Barbara is his nurse.

"I, Faye Nicks, leave my position on the annual staff to anyone who can stand the strain." She's now a lady sergeant on the Madison Police Dept. Her beat is on the corner of Gallatin Road and Old Hickory Blvd.

"I, Carol Overall Calhoun, leave to be with my husband, Lewis." She and Lewis have a new apartment now in New York City.

"I, Ray Pritchett, leave with LeVerne." You remember how he always ran the movie projector. Now he's the cameraman at the new Madison Theatre.

"I, Peggy Pulley, leave my friendship with Mr. Higgins to Donald Deering." That part she had in the Operetta sure did pay off. She's now a concert soloist with the Singapore Opera House.

"I, Betty Rives, leave with my engagement ring, soon to have a companion." She and her husband own the world rights to all the Dari-Dips.

"I, James Robinson, leave my flaming red hair to Joe King." He really has an easy life—he's a beachcomber on a South Sea Island.

"I, June Rutledge, leave my nose to anybody . . . I'm tired of it!" She has become the world's foremost authority on plastic surgery. She operated on Carl Jones—he's not fat any more.

"I, Donald Sims, leave my ulcer to Alvin Scott." He is now the conductor of the United States Marine Band. Their most noted piece is "You're in the Army Now."

"I, James Sisco, leave my duck tails to some needy duck." He finally started his own "Sisco Kid" show on WHEW TV.

"I, Bobby Sloan, leave my Luckies to Forrest Beaty." He was voted yesterday by Look Magazine as one of the nation's Ten Best Dressed Men.

"I, Betty Smith, leave still chasing Jerry." She's a lady wrestler—known as Brain-Bruiser.

"I, Jerry Smith, leave my 'brown' on Mr. Chapel to Eddie Garrett." Jerry is Brain-Bruiser Betty's manager.

"I, Peggy Smith, leave, still giggling." Ole P. A. Smith, the well-known lawyer. She won her case last week—got Raymond Ingram acquitted on an indictment by Mr. Jenkins. He charged that Raymond left scrap paper in a desk in the Chemistry lab ten years ago.

"I, Kathryn Stockton, leave my ability to signal left and turn right to Joe King." She finally obtained her Ph.D. in Criminology. She is one of the most noted professors at Yale.

"I, J. D. Stephens, leave in the 'Rat.' He's a traveling salesman, still riding around in the 'Rat.'"

"I, Clementine Terry, leave many friends." She was appointed by the President as Good Will Ambassador to Paducah, Kentucky.

"I, Carolyn Underhill, leave my quietness to Doodie Yandle." She works in a martini factory. She puts in the cherries and olives.

"I, Peggy Waller, leave my beauty mark (?) to Carl Bailey so everybody can ask him 'if it's real.'" She has become a very fashionable interior decorator. She has redone the White House twice, and redecorated multi-millionaire Tommy Callaway's home five times. Last time she painted it Blurple.

"I, Bubba Weatherspoon, leave my evil eye on the basketball courts to Sparky Edgin." They call Bubba "Sureshot Weatherspoon," now. He plays center for the Harlem Globetrotters.

"I, Mary Ann Wheeler, leave my red hair to Ann Pennington." She became the World's First Lady Pilot for Eastern Air Lines.

"I, Elizabeth Edwards White, leave, one husband richer than when I came."

"I, Frank White, leave my slightly used marriage license to Joe Cartwright." I have to remember to get the new sign painted tomorrow. I think Aunt Lizzie and Uncle Frank's Pool Hall would be a good name.

"I, Hugh White, leave in my pick-up truck." He is now an authority on fish; he developed a new breed—the killer guppy. It has no scales, no bones, no teeth—just meat floating in the water.

"I, Dorothy Whited, leave my Latin derivative notebook to Burton." All that Latin, and now she's a gym teacher—at Princeton.

"I, Jeanette Williams, leave my Chemistry genius to Tommie Hudson." She is now a noted chemist. She recently marketed her own formula for the new Bubble Gum Tooth Paste.

"I, Robbie Williams, leave my towering height to Linda West." Robbie is a cheerleader for the Harlem Globetrotters.

"I, June Williams, leave everything but Jon." She went to South Africa with Warren and Earlene as an assistant nurse.

And so, dear Diary, we remembered, and we cried a little, and wished for a minute that things were as they used to be. We're all grown up now, and all have gone our separate ways. But we thank our God that He made memories.

Good night, dear Diary,
ELIZABETH
