well its just about the end of one great big fabulous year. Robert you have been just swell this year.

WE THE ANNUAL STAFF

There is ~~no one~~ <sup>no one</sup> ~~that~~ <sup>that</sup> ~~could~~ <sup>could</sup> ~~ask~~ <sup>ask</sup> ~~for~~ <sup>for</sup> ~~a~~ <sup>a</sup> ~~better~~ <sup>better</sup> ~~friend~~ <sup>friend</sup>.

I really think the world of you your a great person thats not many people which have looks, ability, and a Christian attitude welcomed open one. Dont ever change your opinions or feelings on the things outside in, and lets hope that we remain to be the best of friends

because is a mighty lucky girl to have a person like you

Robert,

It has been a real experience
knowing someone like you for years.
You have a most interesting past and I hope a future just as well.
You are an exceptionally good sport and have many great talents.
Best of luck to you during this summer and stay out of trouble.

RAM

Best of luck
in the future, to a real good guy.

Madison High School
Madison, Tennessee

WE DEDICATE the 1964 RAM to our FACULTY

Because of . . .

Their interest in each student as an individual . . .

Their wise and sympathetic counsel to all who seek it . . .

Their inspiration to those they meet in the classroom . . .

and

Because they accepted the challenge of Madison High.

"A teacher affects eternity;
he can never tell where his influence stops."

Henry Brooks Adams

THE CURRICULUM

THROUGHOUT ITS FIRST DECADE, MADISON HIGH'S CHANGING CURRICULUM HAS ACHIEVED A REPUTATION FOR BEING ABLE TO MEET THE CHALLENGE OF A GROWING STUDENT BODY.

Mr. Mick leads a seventh grade general music class

Jacques, what would Mrs. Dillon do without you?

American history students learn the value of educational television.

In shop, boys turn their ideas into useful objects.

Now boys, it's only a small contact lens!

Miss Shaw stresses the importance of learning the English language.

Mr. Sargent's advertising agency.

Miss Hargrove keeps 'em in stitches.

These hieroglyphics will be explained in Mr. Martin's Ancient History class.

Carter Howard wonders, "Who said tempus fugit"?

Max Flapp's Senior English class enjoys a performance of Macbeth.

Eighth graders explore mathematics with Mr. Dennis.

Miss Kennedy instructs her Reading Improvement class.

Who dissected that snake, Mr. Arnold?

This year, the new journalism class has been learning the essentials of good writing.

CLASS

The years at Madison, each a challenge, are filled with memories and achievements. Madison students work toward goals of cooperation and success.

“ . . . From contemplation one may become wise, but knowledge comes only from study.”

. . . A. Edward Newton

Alma Mater

Standing proudly there before us—
With your glory all around;
Truth and justice be your watchword,
And may you in love abound.

Open wide your doors of knowledge,
Welcome all who enter here.
Gain in wisdom, joy, and honor—
Stand for all we hold most dear.

Chorus:

Madison High, we love you dearly;
Proudly do we hail your name.
May your name go on before us,
Into life's great hall of fame.

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

Best All Round

CHERYL PATTERSON

If you can imagine beauty, brains, and talent rolled into one person, you've found the perfect image of Cheryl. Entertaining Madison fans for four years as a majorette, and serving as a class officer, a Homecoming Queen attendant, and Secretary of the National Honor Society, she has proven to be an individual of outstanding ability in many fields.

JOHN REYNOLDS

Over the past four years, John has emerged as Madison's ideal boy. This year, especially, much of Madison's success can be attributed to his capable leadership. He has served as president of the National Honor Society, co-captain of the football team, and president of the Student Council. Due to his outstanding and well-rounded personality he was selected by the Senior Class and the faculty to be the Civitan Medalist.

Most Popular

SANDRA SMITH

Sandra's bubbling personality, her friendliness, and interest in everyone have contributed to the overwhelming popularity she has experienced at Madison. Having been a member of the tennis team and a homeroom officer for three years, she was elected president of the Civinette Club and Class secretary her senior year.

RICHARD DAVIS

Dickie's somewhat bashful and very likeable nature were primary factors in his election as the senior's most popular boy. He's been a valuable member of Madison football, basketball, and track teams and a great senior class president.

SUPERLATIVE PICTURES COURTESY OF JEANNE - GORDON STUDIO.

Most Likely to Succeed

KATIE REED

Katie's combination of determination and hard work have contributed to her past success and will continue to do so in the future. This year, she has served as president of the Library Lassies and of the Future Teachers' Club. Her qualities of leadership and dependability led to her selection as Madison's DAR Medalist.

STANLEY CARVER

Known for his speaking ability and his thatch of unruly brown hair, Stanley has been a member of the NFL throughout his high school years. He has been active in Student Council for four years. With his good looks and talent for getting ahead, Stanley is sure to go far when he leaves Madison.

Most Dependable

MARGARET EDDS

Margaret has the most dependable house in Madison—right across the street from the school. A little of its dependability has even rubbed off on Margaret. Could you be at a library meeting, debating for Mrs. Eldridge, working on the annual, and picking up your father, all at the same time??

RONALD BUCHANAN

If leadership, sportsmanship, and consistent scholastic excellence are indications of dependability, then Bucky is right on top. He has not only the friendship of his fellow students, but their respect and admiration as well. We all know that we can depend on Bucky—as a teammate, as a student, as a friend.

Best wishes to a really great boy. I've enjoyed being in class with you this year. Love, Marilyn

Best Looking

MARILYN BLAIR

Marilyn's beauty and pep have been a great asset to Madison in many of its activities. She has led fans for three years as an active cheerleader and this year, in addition to being a homecoming queen attendant, was selected as the best looking senior girl.

WADE JOYNER

With Wade, good looks and persistent achievement seem to go together. While there is no written record of his success with fellow students all who know Wade agree that his friendliness is as great an asset as his handsome face.

*Best of luck to a great guy. I hope you have a good year next year in football. Don't get hurt. May God bless you and your ever dream
Joel
Jeff*

Most Talented

CAROL CROSSLIN

Carol's musical accomplishments at Madison have been outstanding. A band member for four years, she has represented our school on the All-Star and All-State Bands. She is equally talented, however, at creating laughter and is well-known for her wit.

HOWARD GRAVES

Josh's participation in assemblies and talent shows has proven to all his tremendous musical talent. We're all expecting that in the future he'll become equally noted in the musical world.

Most Athletic

REBECCA THOMPSON

Although small, Becky has continually astounded Madison fans with her tremendous amount of ability as a basketball player. She's been an active member of the team during her high school days and helped lead the Ramettes this year as one of their co-captains.

CHARLES BOYD

Chuck has not only been Madison's most athletic boy but one of Tennessee's. He has been exceptional in football, basketball, and track. In addition his scholastic achievements have been high and he has served as Vice-President of the Student Council and of his Sophomore Class.

Friendliest

CAROL STEPHENS

Carol is one of those well-liked people who always have a smile and a friendly word for everyone. During the past four years, she has participated actively in the Junior Red Cross, the Student Council, and as a PTA representative.

MIKE BUMBALOUGH

Though people have been his first interest, Mike has been active in the Student Council and clubs. He is concluding a four year career as one of Madison's hard-hitting centers.

Neatest

ROSEMARY YANDLE

Rosemary is noted for being habitually well-dressed and for always looking "neat as a pin". Her neatness and preciseness have carried over into her school work and into the outside activities in which she has participated.

HARRY WEBSTER

Neatness and orderliness seems to have been combined in large proportions in Harry. His continual well-dressed tidiness contributed to his election as the neatest senior boy.

Best School Spirit

MARGUERITE WOLF

Marguerite has been an avid supporter of all Madison activities, even those in which she has not actively participated. Through her work on the basketball team, the Student Council, and various clubs, she has continually devoted her time and energy to backing up school projects and activities.

WAYNE BALIFF

Wayne has continually amazed people with his loyalty to Madison. His leadership on the Student Council, as a class officer and his sportsmanship on the baseball, football, and basketball teams have contributed to his election as the senior boy with the best school spirit.

Most Mischievous

ANN NUNALLY

Ann is well-known at Madison for her mischievous nature and her ability to find and produce the humor in any situation. Due to her outgoing personality, she has been a PTA Representative, a home room officer, and a member of various clubs.

BERNICE CHRISTY

"Has anyone seen Miss Jones?" Maybe not; but everyone's either seen, heard, or possibly stepped on Christy. There's no doubt in anyone's mind that he has more laughter, mischief and deviltry rolled up in his --- pounds than most of the senior class combined.

Wittiest

JUDY MALONE

It's a "laugh a minute" whenever Judy's around. Having that special something that adds to every conversation, she has spread laughter and humor in all the organizations, such as the Jr. PTA and Red Cross and Junior High Basketball team, in which she has participated.

CONRAD SLATE

Truly, all the world is Conrad's stage—at least all Madison High. His humor, wit, and acting ability make him a companion to be chosen; wherever he is, there is sure to be laughter.

Most Mischievous

ANN NUNALLY

Ann is well-known at Madison for her mischievous nature and her ability to find and produce the humor in any situation. Due to her outgoing personality, she has been a PTA Representative, a home room officer, and a member of various clubs.

BERNICE CHRISTY

CONRAD SLATE

Truly, all the world is Conrad's stage—at least all Madison High. His humor, wit, and acting ability make him a companion to be chosen; wherever he is, there is sure to be laughter.

Most Courteous

KAY FAMBROUGH

Kay's courtesy and continual consideration of the feelings and opinions of others have made her a very well-known and well-liked individual. She has been an active participant in many clubs, organizations, and facets of school life.

RANDALL THOMPSON

No one can deny that Randall is full of courtesy, he has positive proof of the fact. After all, can you think of a better excuse for tearing up your car and yourself? He was being courteous to a dog—or was it a cat??

Quietest

SUE CHANCE

Over the past six years, Sue's quiet and studious nature has given her a distinct place at Madison. Although she is only occasionally heard above her more boisterous classmates, those few times have revealed an intelligent and thoughtful mind.

FRED BRUMBACH

For four years, Fred has been one of Madison's quietest and shyest boys. Even playing on our noisy football team hasn't changed him, or, are we mistaken? Is he the one who leads that blood curdling yell on the practice field?

WE SALUTE

PATRICIA GENTRY

For outstanding scholastic achievement in placing in the semifinals of the National Merit Scholarship Test, we salute Patricia.

STANLEY CARVER

Because he has served as chairman of the Student Council Club committee for two years and through his leadership maintained interest in the after school program, we salute Stanley.

CAROL HESTER

For her five years of work in the library, for her participation in the Band, for her consistently high grades, and because she won a National Secretaries Association scholarship, The Ram salutes Carol.

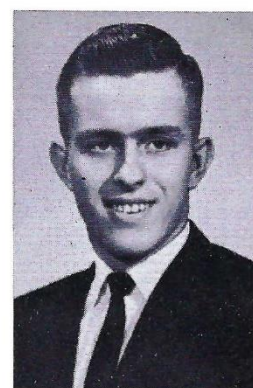

RICHARD JONES

EDWIN HARPER

JOHN PERRY

DAN COBLE

A job well done, a praise well earned—we salute each of these students for five years of service to Madison High through Audio-Visual Aids. With your help, the classroom has become a window on the world, with faraway places and events a part of our daily learning.

Membership in the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors a high school student can attain. It is an organization that is based on the character, scholarship, leadership, and service of the student. When a student has developed these outstanding characteristics, he is an asset to his fellow man.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

The N. F. L. chapter of Madison holds a distinguished position from the many honors it has received. There are 48 members, making it one of the leading chapters in the entire state.

N. F. L. members have attended various tournaments this year and have obtained many first place awards. One honor, which was not only an honor to the school, but also to the state, was the Barkley Forum, held at Emory University, in Atlanta, Georgia. Although it was Madison's first year in attendance, they walked away with first place in overall competition, obtaining four additional trophies for the school display case.

Kenneth Kornman, Jim Paris, Betty Stubblefield, Jerry Ann Gibbs, Charles Nelson, Bob Bohnenstiel, and Mrs. Eldridge, with the trophies they won at the Barkley Forum for Southeastern States at Emory University.

Once again, for the second consecutive year, Madison placed first in the county play contest and in the individual county contests. And, although to the extreme displeasure of many other N.F.L. chapters in the county, Madison's N.F.L. won County Sweepstakes again for the sixth straight year!

We are proud of our four members who have obtained their Double-Ruby Degree and rank in the top one hundred in the entire United States.

LIBRARY

LASSIES

When the Library Lassies were organized in 1957, they adopted three symbols: an open book, a burning candle, and a plaid clad lassie. The book is for knowledge and the candle for the spreading of knowledge. The plaid represents frugality which all Lassies must practice with their time in order to serve others more. The bright plaid of the Royal Stuart clan is now the Lassies' official tartan. At the annual Induction service, March 17, each member received her tartan and is entitled to wear it on all official occasions as long as she is active in the library program. Many Lassies have made skirts of the same plaid.

Mrs. H. H. Brockett, Davidson County Library Supervisor, was the speaker for the Induction Service. Twenty-five members received cards and 10 received M.T.A. of S.L.A. pins. Ten members represented Madison at the annual M.T.A. of S.L.A. Conference at Tennessee Tech in Cookeville. Pat Gentry, Historian, directed the preparation of the scrapbook, which was entered at the convention.

Barbara Thacker, Jane Kelley, Diane Richards, Linda Harder, Pat Read, Peggy Roberts, Gail Lydon, Marsha Lorraine, Linda Stovall.

The Lassies have continued their many projects to keep the students and faculty informed on new materials and services. Katie Reed, president, was student librarian for the summer school program.

Janie Douglas, Linda Cameron, Drena Ferguson, Carolyn Nettleton, Brenda Ernest, Sherry Taggart, Alicia Menees, Janice Ivey, Connie Helms, Teresa Hamlin.

Judy Goetz, Linda Hooper, Treysa Brown, Betty Callis, Pat Seigenthaler, Faye Everett, Nancy Dutton, Jane Goetz, Nancy England.

During Book Week in November, the Lassies visited 23 classes with new books and made book talks. They prepared a bibliography of new books for seventh and eighth grade classes and a bibliography of new books for American History.

RAM PAGE

This has been the first year that Madison High has had a Journalism Class composed of the members of the Ram-Page Staff. All forms of writing, editing, and managing have been studied. The Ram-Page Staff and its sponsor, Mrs. Hudson, have strived to make this year's Ram-Page the biggest and best newspaper Madison has ever had.

L. to R.—Mrs. Hudson, Miss Yager, Dennis Dotson, Mrs. Miller, Mr. Wolery, Mrs. Willey, Pat Gentry.

BULLETIN BOARD COMMITTEE

Through the past decade at Madison, selected faculty members and students have strived through hall bulletin boards to enrich the school program. Both educational and entertaining, these bulletin boards are used ingeniously for guidance and to remind students of coming events, and future sports activities. Over the years, thousands of unspoken words have passed to the students through the continual efforts of the Bulletin Board Committee.

L. to R.—Linda King and Linda Graham represent the students who work on the bulletin board committee as artists at Madison.

Mike Sloan and Nancy Hart use their talents to decorate the halls.

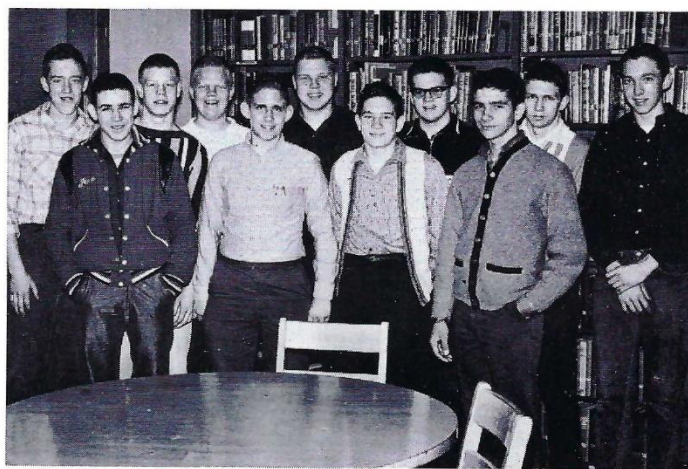

L. to R.—Ernest Denson, Howard Waters, Mr. Dillingham, Sponsor, Charles Hall, Edwin Harper, Johnny Perry.

AUDIO VISUAL AID BOYS

The Audio-Visual Aids boys choose to work in this organization because of their interest in electronics and related materials. Although they do not receive scholastic credits, they do accumulate activity points.

MADISON MARCHING RAMS

The Madison Marching Rams began their rehearsals three weeks before school started this year. This hard work made it possible to present the best opening game half-time show in the history of Madison High School, even though it was the most difficult show attempted. One of the highlights of the Fall was the M.T.S. B.O.A. Marching and Twirling Festival at Columbia, Tennessee. The Band more than earned a rating of "Excellent" in competition with 26 other Middle Tennessee bands. The majorette squad brought back all "A's". Both ensemble and the six solos received "Superior" ratings. The Madison Rams were also stars of the Vanderbilt University Band Day ceremonies at the half of the Vandy-Furman game. The twenty-five performances for the year included eleven football shows, three parades, four concerts, two competition festivals, and numerous community affairs. 1963-1964 was a record year for the Madison Ram Band.

JUNIOR BAND

FOOTBALL AT MADISON

MADISON FOOTBALL GOES ON TELEVISION

Madison has another first! September 20, 1963, cameramen began moving into the Ram stadium to produce the first high school football game ever to be seen on television in Tennessee. WLAC cameramen were on hand to broadcast the game between Madison and arch rival Litton to thousands of viewers. The Rams fought hard and emerged victoriously 13-6 over the Lions.

John Reynolds does some scene stealing for his unseen audience.

Hours of preparation and loads of equipment produced an excellent show.

CHARLES RAY BOYD

Quarterback, Co-Captain

Chuck Boyd has been the most outstanding athlete in Madison High's first decade. Besides placing in the top ten scholastically in each of his high school years, Chuck, who was named the NIL Athlete of the Year, has built an enviable record in football.

Co-captain of the football team, he has been a member of the All-City, the All-State, and the All-Southern football teams, and he has received honorable mention on the All-American team. He was voted the most valuable player in the NIL.

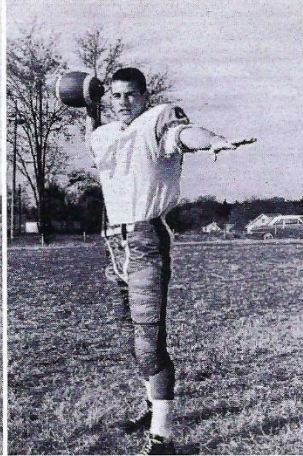

Yet Chuck has lived up to his reputation as an all around athlete. For two and one half years, he has been an outstanding guard on the first string basketball team. He paced Madison's track team by winning both the Regional and the State Decathlon Championships.

We salute Chuck, whose achievements in sports have helped to strengthen Madison's athletic program.

RAMS AVOID UPSET

Madison avoided an upset at Goodlettsville by a tremendous team effort in the second half. Dickie Davis led off with a 68 yard run and tied the score 6-6. Then Chuck Boyd ended a 57 yard march by scoring from the three yard line, and the Rams emerged victorious, 12-6.

MADISON MEETS M. B. A.

The Rams showed a thrilling display of team effort in the second half when they pulled from behind, 14-7 in one of the most exciting games of the season. Madison came back with a great defensive stand; Ronnie Smith led the offensive team with 129 yards; Chuck Boyd scored and Dale Brady's kick tied the score. The final score, 14-14, left the Rams dissatisfied but not beaten.

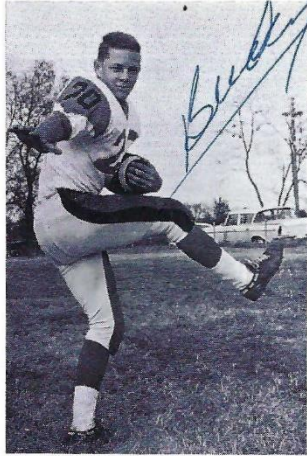

Ronnie Smith scores the only touchdown against Jackson in the Rams' first loss.

RAMS HIT HILLSBORO

Unpredictable Hillsboro fell to the Rams in a 31-0 offensive explosion. Chuck Boyd, Dale Brady, and Dick Davis spearheaded the attack while the defense held the Burros scoreless. Both Davis and Brady made long touchdown runs, and Boyd intercepted a pass on Hillsboro's 12 yard line, ending the Burros' hopes of an upset.

TWENTY-SEVENTH WIN

Madison won its 27th consecutive NIL game by defeating Litton, 13-0. This was the first high school football game to appear on television in Tennessee. Chuck Boyd and Ronnie Smith led in yardage, while Bernice Christy, Kenneth Apple, and the linesmen were defensive demons. Two of the high points of the game were pass interceptions by Sid-Hinkle and Dale Brady which put the game on for the Rams.

same as you are always and you will go far.
May you always have the best in life.

How DARK the halls were at seven thirty in the morning?

How QUIET they were during devotions?

How LONG they were when you walked alone to your locker?

How LONESOME they were after school?

1964

The Senior Class wrought their memories in iron.

Mr. Martin and Mr. Anderson received advanced degrees.

Miss Drake became the first Madison graduate to return as a teacher.

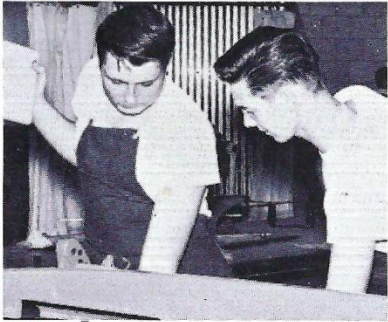

Mr. Bridgman admired all the trophies we won in 1964.

A YEAR OF ACHIEVEMENT

. . . A YEAR OF

Study
